

The McConico Times

McConico's 2010

McConico's 1991

New Years Greetings From The McConico Crew

Welcome! Dec. 19, 1991 was the date on our first family newsletter. There was so much to share with everyone that a note on each Christmas card would have been impossible! Thus, the McConico Times was born. A three ring binder holds our family's history told in our yearly letter—which continues with this issue. Putting all that has happened this year into six pages is a real challenge. After all, we have doubled in size! We hope you have fun taking a peak into our year....

BECKY'S BOOKLET - Each year as I write these letters, I like to sit near our Christmas tree - rich with history hanging on its' limbs. There are ornaments made by grandparents during WW99, stockings & bells & snowflakes crocheted by Ron's mother, painted ornaments from other family members, ornaments from my grandmothers & parents trees, photo frames of our children/ grandchildren, soldiers & airmen, snowflakes & icicles, birds & twinkle lights all topped by an angel & frosted with old fashioned tinsel. Each ornament has a story & a reason for being there. Each one of us has our own story & a reason for being here on earth. It may take years to write our story & find out our reason...

Welcome

Becky's Booklet

Ron's Ramblings

Andrew's Adventures

Simon's Shuttters

Donna's Doings

Jonathan & Melody's

Musings

Will you Dance With Me?

20 Years Ago: Andrew is 10, 5th grade, Cub Scouts, dance class (did a tap routine in a camouflage outfit to a song about God's army), got glasses & went on his 1st week-long camp out (Camp Fish). Simon is nearly 9, 3rd grade, Cub Scouts, dance class (same routine as Andy), went on a mini fish camp, loves craft/art things, making noise & reading. Donna is 6, 1st grade, got glasses, loves painting/drawing/gluing, also took dance classes. Jonathan is almost 5, loves nursery school, a very good boy who helps Mommy a lot, loves to pretend cowboys/camping/church, loves to draw/paint/color. Ron is working at a computer job, a Deacon at church preaching/teaching at times. Becky is on the church worship team, Picture Lady at our kids' school (through Art Institute), cares for nieces Sarah & Katie a lot, helped clean out her Grandma Roufs home. That year two of our close family members went to Heaven. We tried to sell our house, & we finally decided that God had planted us

The McConico
Crew
Becky and Ron
Andrew, Sam &
Will
Simon and Nicole
Alex and Donna
Melody and Jonathan &
Nehemiah

